(hereinafter referred to as the "Attorney") to perform legal acts relating to the Principal's trading account in accordance with Saxo Capital Markets (Australia) Pty Ltd's ("SCM") General Business Terms and other terms and agreements as amended from time to time, as if they were performed by the Principal.

In consideration of SCM allowing the Principal to grant this Authorisation to Disclose Account Information (Authorisation), the Principal understands and agrees as follows:

- The Principal indemnifies SCM in relation to this grant of Account View Authorisation;
- SCM may not accept from the Attorney, any order for the purchase and sale of securities, derivatives, foreign exchange, financial products and any other property in the Principal's account(s) on margin or otherwise;
- The Attorney will not be allowed to give any form of instructions, written or otherwise, regarding the transfer of funds to the credit or debit of the Principal's account(s);
- SCM have no responsibility or liability to the Principal in granting this Authorisation to the Attorney, through this agreement;
- The Principal at all times remains responsible and liable for their account(s);
- The Principal declares that all acts, matters and things undertaken by the Attorney in exercising powers under this Authorisation, if any, will be as valid and effective as if they had been done by the Principal;
- SCM is under no duty to supervise or otherwise know or review the trading practices or advice or any other acts of the Attorney;
- SCM is allowed to reveal all information about the account to the Attorney and so, for instance, send a copy of any and all transaction notes, account statements or similar to the Attorney.

This Authorisation shall remain in effect until terminated in writing by SCM or the Principal (or where the Principal is an individual, the Principal himself or his executor(s), personal representative(s) or lawful successor(s)) and correspondingly confirmed in writing by SCM. This Authorisation shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of New South Wales.

Each Party submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of New South Wales to determine any proceedings arising out of or in relation to the grant of this Authorisation.
